Captain Thomas wants the Republican nomination for Congress.

The Republicans of Illinois meet in State convention on the 26th of June.

Hon. Matt. Inscore would be a strong Republican candidate for Congress in this district.

Col. S. H. Haynes, of Carbondale, is announced by the Carbondale Free Press as a candidate for State Representative.

Hon. R. R. Townes has concluded to be a candidate for Congress, and will seek a nomination from the Democratic party.

Hon. William Murphy, of Perry, has been suggested as a Democratic candidate for Congress. He would make a good race.

Hon. William Hartzell will be a candidate for re-election to Congress. He has been a faithful servant of his constituents.

Mr. Jack Keykendall will not run for Congress.

"I would not marry you, my pretty maid!" "Nobody asked you, sir," she said.

Hon. Newton R. Casey has concluded to be a candidate for Congress, subject to the approval of the Democratic convention of this district.

Hon. F. E. Abernethy has, we are informed, concluded to make the race for Congress. He will not be easily defeated either for nomination or election.

If Mr. S. P. Wheeler could be induced to accept the Democratic nomination for Congress, the scalp of his Republican opponent would be found dangling from his belt next fall.

Hon. William H. Green might be induced to be a candidate for Congress. A nomination of the Democratic party might induce him to make an exception to his hold-no-office rule.

Hon. W. J. Allen is actively engaged in the canvass for Congress. He has Perry, and is sure he will get Jackson, Union, Johnson and Williamson. The votes of these will nominate.

If Hon. D. T. Linsegar were nominated for Congress by the Democratic party he would make a rousing canvass of this district, and demolish the Republican candidate wherever he might be.

Hon. J. M. Washburn, of Williamson, would be a strong candidate for Congress. He has been solicited to become a candidate and should not stand upon the order of becoming but become one at once.

Mr. D. I. Davis, of the Sun, has been suggested as a proper man to bear the Republican standard aloft in this fall. If it were not for the jealousy of his fellow Republicans he might stand some chance.

If Jackson gets the Congressman—either Allen or Abernethy—he will not want a member of the House of the General Assembly. Union will then get the member Jackson now has. And Union should send Benton.

It is by no means certain that the pleasure of being sacrificed in the race for Congress will be denied Mr. C. N. Hughes. His party supporters are not the ostentatious, noisy sort. They are working like beavers, night and day, and will make themselves felt at the Carbondale love feast.

THE man who thinks that Col. Ben Wiley has abandoned all Congressional aspirations reckons without his host. He has the advantage of experience in canvassing, and would give his undivided rivals a lively shaking up should he consent to sling his castor into the ring. There are few men who care about tackling the colonel in argument.

COL. BILLY BROWN is one of the few Radicals in Massac who is charged with being able to "read, rite and cipher." If this did not destroy all chances of his success at the Carbondale convention, he would run like a clipper before a gentle gale. But his virtues doom him. The pious element of his party will be permitted to cut no figure in the matter.

THE Carbondale Free Press advises the Republicans of this congressional district to bring out their best man for Congress. This is good advice. And now will the Free Press kindly inform the Republicans who their best man is? Is his name Thomas? or Fisher? or Deltrich? or Willis? or Fountain? or Hughes? or McKeag? or Candee? or Brown? or—

MAYOR WINTER would rally "the boys" if he could be persuaded to unbend himself, and come down to the level of a congressman. As "this is my last year as the executive officer of the city," why not indulge in his recreation the race would afford? Worse men than our worthy mayor have been sent to Congress. Why not don the paint and feathers and assume the war-path?

Is our friend, Col. Wood, to be overlooked in all this congressional business? Has he no claims upon his party? Is a patriot, is the most exalted, a loyalty that never wavered in the ominous days of the republic, to go unrewarded? Surely no man has stronger lien upon the gratitude of his co-workers; and if we do not hear of the Colonel at Carbondale, then, indeed, we shall believe that parties—like republics—are ungateful.

COL. McKEAG is one of those silent workers who delve deep. His gaze covers the whole congressional field. His opponents are weighed and measured to a hair. He is not an awkward manipulator. If he does not lift hair at Carbondale, in July next, then all signs fail. He springs the mine at the right moment, and the victim, after being shot into space, falls, like Lucifer, never to rise again. But men are elevated sometimes by their own petard. We advise the Colonel to tread the earth gingerly—his enemies are on his trail.

If the Republicans were not ungrateful they would nominate for Congress the Hon. J. J. Bird, of this city. He represents the largest, most intelligent and most loyal element of the Republican party in the district. He is one of the most effective stump speakers in Southern Illinois, and has more influence in his party than any white Republican of Cairo, excepting Mr. Geo. Fisher. If Mr. Bird were nominated every colored man would rally to his support, and all the white Republicans would vote for him, either cheerfully or on compulsion.

A PIONEER GONE. Although the intelligence reached this city Saturday we did not learn until last evening that Capt. John S. Hacker had breathed his last. Born in 1792, and consequently in his eighty-sixth year, his death was not wholly unexpected. A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican in announcing his death says "he came to Illinois in 1810 and was a valuable acquisition to the settlement, and has figured largely in the history of Southern Illinois. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Miliken, whose father gave the name of Miliken's bend to a curve in the Mississippi river, well-known to the river men. Before steamboats were known on the river, and while yet a young man, he made several trips to New Orleans on keel boats. He was sent as a senator to the State legislature time and again, ever receiving the sanction and approval of his constituents. He has ever been an advocate and defender of the principles of Democracy. In the Mexican war the captain and his company performed an important part in the memorable battle of Buena Vista, where the Mexican forces, though four to one, were badly beaten and Santa Anna caused to retreat precipitately. His has been truly aeventful life. He saw the whole country pass through the war of 1812, the war with Mexico and late civil war. He saw the whole western country, from the Ohio river to the Pacific ocean, a dense wilderness only inhabited by savages, reclaimed, settled, and in the highest state of civilization." He died at Jonesboro, and was buried in the cemetery at that place on yesterday.

THE first "white bait dinner" ever given in America took place at Manhattan Beach last Wednesday. A full band of music was in attendance, and seventy-five literary epicures sat down to the feast. Four "artists," including Prof. Conrad, the chef de cuisine, put the fish through the process of baking and served them to the guests with lemon juice. This piscatorial luxury, which is "no longer than a baby's finger," was discovered in English waters in 1812 by Sir Robert Preston, who gave the first white bait dinner in England, and were first found in New York bay in 1867.

He has the advantage of experience in canvassing, and would give his undivided rivals a lively shaking up should he consent to sling his castor into the ring. MONTGOMERY'S LATEST.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 8, 1878.

My Dear Major: What you say in yours of the 4th, just received, confirms the faith avowed in my first letter, that the Democrats would not allow their leaders to put them in a false position respecting the fraud. They owe Mr. Hayes nothing for surrendering to the people the government of the States whose electoral votes were pilated to make him president. He could not help it. The last house of representatives refused to allow the army to put down the people, and the present house would have been obliged to adhere to that position. Nor does the acceptance by Southern Democrats of a cabinet place, and other offices in company with the thieves by whom their people were robbed of their votes to make Hayes president, atone in any degree to the party or to their country for this great crime.

The Democratic leaders who think so, make the same mistake made by Mr. Clay, when, in reply to Gov. Floyd's remonstrance against his vote for Adams, he said: "Give us patronage and we will make ourselves popular." The Democracy of the South can not be induced to continue a crime against popular government by distributing patronage among them. Others are making quite a great mistake in upholding the fraud because Hayes makes a common cause with them against their rival, Tilden. Nor does the abuse of Tilden, to which those who uphold the frauds so freely resort, help the matter. If it was Tilden's cause, it might be worth while to consider what they say. But as it is the people's cause, Tilden is but the representative of the people, and war on him now is simply war on representative government and justification of its subversion by fraud.

Yours truly,

MONTGOMERY BLAIR.

KEHOE RESCUED.

GOV. HARRISETT DETERMINED TO PREVENT THE EXECUTION.

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.—In the conversation at Harrisburg last evening, Gov. Harrisett intimated that he thought Jack Kehoe innocent of the crime of which he was convicted, and said he could not be driven to consent to hanging an innocent man, even though it should be carried into the campaign, and made the handle of politics. Kehoe is the famous king of the Mollie Maguires, and is supposed to have had a hand in nearly every one of the crimes of the order. Indeed he is already under sentence of imprisonment for fourteen years for complicity in the murder of Gomer James, the assault on Thomas, and the conspiracy against the Majors, besides his conviction of the murder of W. S. Langdon at Audensfield, June 4, 1862. He is, however, a man of great political influence in the coal districts.

PROVISIONS.

All those needing anything in the provision line will do well to call at Nos. 70 and 71 Ohio levee before purchasing elsewhere. Pork, bacon, lard, etc., all in good stock and prices down down! down!

LETTIE COLEMAN'S LAUNDRY.

Mrs. Lettie Coleman has reopened her laundry on Fourth street, between Washington and Commercial avenues, and takes this method of informing her old friends and patrons that she is again at their services, and solicits their patronage. She has reduced prices to suit the times.

THE beauty of the ladies of Baltimore has become the standard of comparison the world over. They maintain that peculiar clearness and richness of complexion by the occasional use (as required) of Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture.

FAIR PLAY.—If a few doses of a proprietary medicine fails to cure a malady for which it is advertised, some seek a physician and contentedly take his routine prescriptions for months, even though they receive no benefit. Is this fair play? Suppose the traveler on a strange and dangerous road inquires the route to a town some twenty miles distant, and, after going one or two miles, concludes to abandon the road, because he cannot see the town. If lost, could any one be blamed but himself? The Family Medicine manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, New York, are a safe and certain cure for the various diseases for which they are recommended. His Golden Medical Discovery has long been the standard remedy for the cure of scrofula, bronchitis, consumption, dyspepsia, liver complaint, skin diseases, and all impurities of the blood, while Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, if used in connection with the Discovery, effects a speedy and perfect cure of the most aggravated catarrhal affection. For many years the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women were regarded as incurable. The knife and caustic were freely used with but exceptional benefit. The success attending the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription induced the doctor to sell it under a positive guarantee to cure this class of diseases. If afflicted, do not hesitate to try it. See Pierce's memorandum books, given away by all druggists.

MR. VESUVIUS.—Should an eruption occur in this volcano and cause the destruction of one-half of the inhabitants who live in the vicinity, the remainder, who barely escape with their lives, immediately move back upon the half-cooled lava, and there live in constant fear of another eruption, foolishly fancying that the only tenable portion of the earth rests within the shadow of the great volcano. This fairly illustrates the force of habit, and the persistency with which people cling to opinions when once formed. For example, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures incipient consumption, coughs, colds and all affections of the liver and blood, yet some still depend upon physicians and remedies that have naught but repeated failures to which they can refer. And though Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sold under a positive guarantee to cure these weaknesses peculiar to women, and notwithstanding that thousands of women bear testimony to its efficacy, and the truth of all statements made concerning it, many yet submit to the use of caustic and the knife. Again, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, no larger than mustard seeds, will positively cure constipation, where it is a dependent upon dyspepsia or torpid liver; yet some still depend for relief upon the "blue pill" or huge doses of drastic cathartic medicine. In the face of such facts, can we wonder at the blindness of the poor Italians?

OUR TEXT.—When the tones of a musical instrument become harsh and discordant, we say it is "out of tune." The same may be said of that far more wonderful and complicated piece of mechanism, the human structure, when it becomes disordered. Not only actual disease, but those far more common causes, over-work, mental anxiety and fast living may impair its vigor and activity. The best remedy for a partial collapse of the vital energies, from these or from other causes, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is at the same time an agreeable and mind-clearing cordial and the best possible invigorant in all cases of debility. It is an incomparable stomachic and bilious medicine, eradicates fever and ague, and prevents subsequent attacks. It remedies with certainty and thoroughness bowels and kidney complaints, dyspepsia, nervousness, rheumatic troubles and many other bodily ailments. It also counteracts influences which predispose to disease.
